i have been attempting to communicate with agents of HARRIS COUNTY APPRAISAL DISTRICT for 3 years but no one will respond to me.

during November 6, 2017, Donna Weselka told me, "If i can be of further assistance, please don't hesitate to contact me.

<https://archive.org/stream/PROPERTYTAXFRAUDEXHIBITS-HARRISCOUNTY/EXHIBIT%20%20-%20Received-Monday-November-6-2017#mode/2up>

during November 7, 2017 i sent an email to Donna Weselka stating, "i believe jurisdiction is being presumed and i require proof of facts of evidence of jurisdiction.

Answer this question, yes or no:

1. Do you have any proof, physical facts of evidence, that just because a man is physically located geographically on land you call "HARRIS COUNTY" that your laws apply to him?

i require yes or no answer only.

no additional information is required or desired.

1 simple yes or no is what i require."

during November 4, 2017 i sent an email to Donna Weselka stating, " It has been almost a month and you have no responded to my previous email.

The question i asked was:

1. Do you have any proof, physical facts of evidence, that just because a man is physically geographically located on land you call "HARRIS COUNTY" that your laws apply to him.

i shall consider your silent acquiescence to be evidence that you have no jurisdiction over man just because he is physically geographically located on land you call "HARRIS COUNTY."

i do not have a phone, i do not have mailbox, i do not have an automobile so the only form of communication available for me is email.

court is the place and suite of the sovereign; the place where the sovereign sojourns with his regal retinue, wherever that may be. superior is a court superior in law to all others. Such as that contemplated in non-statutory abatements, however, is spelled "superior court" to distinguish it from the statutory, corporate courts, Superior Court, Under Magna Charta, Chapter 34, no man can be denied his own court.

  - "When a government is dependent upon bankers for money, they and not the leaders of the government control the situation, since the hand that gives is above the hand that takes... Money has no motherland; financiers are without patriotism and without decency; their sole object is gain." – Napoleon Bonaparte, Emperor of France, 1815
  - The money powers prey upon the nation in times of peace and conspire against it in times of adversity. The banking powers are more despotic than a monarchy, more insolent than autocracy, more selfish than

- The death of Lincoln was a disaster for Christendom. There was no man in the United States great enough to wear his boots and the bankers went anew to grab the riches. I fear that foreign bankers with their craftiness and tortuous tricks will entirely control the exuberant riches of America and use it to systematically corrupt civilization. Otto von Bismark (1815-1898), German Chancellor, after the Lincoln assassination
- I believe that banking institutions are more dangerous to our liberties than standing armies. If the American people ever allow private banks to control the issue of their currency, first by inflation, then by deflation, the banks and corporations that will grow up around the banks will deprive the people of all property – until their children wake-up homeless on the continent their father conquered. - Man will ultimately be governed by God or by tyrants. Benjamin Franklin
- "History records that the money changers have used every form of abuse, intrigue, deceit, and violent means possible to maintain their control over governments by controlling money and its issuance." -James Madison
- Woodrow Wilson signed the 1913 Federal Reserve Act. A few years later he wrote: "I am a most unhappy man. I have unwittingly ruined my country. A great industrial nation is controlled by its system of credit. Our system of credit is concentrated. The growth of the nation, therefore, and all our activities are in the hands of a few men. We have come to be one of the worst ruled, one of the most completely controlled and dominated Governments in the civilized world no longer a Government by free opinion, no longer a Government by conviction and the vote of the majority, but a Government by the opinion and duress of a small group of dominant men." -Woodrow Wilson

- "Money is a new form of slavery, and distinguishable from the old simply by the fact that it is impersonal – that there is no human relation between master and slave." Leo Tolstoy, Russian writer.
- "The modern banking system manufactures money out of nothing. The process is, perhaps, the most astounding piece of sleight of hand that was ever invented. Banks can in fact inflate, mint and un-mint the modern ledger-entry currency." Major L L B Angus.
- "The study of money, above all other fields in economics, is one in which complexity is used to disguise truth or to evade truth, not to reveal it. The process by which banks create money is so simple the mind is repelled. With something so important, a deeper mystery seems only decent." John Kenneth Galbraith (1908- ), former professor of economics at Harvard, writing in 'Money: Whence it came, where it went' (1975).
- As Nicolas Trist – secretary to President Andrew Jackson – said about the incredibly powerful privately owned Second Bank of the United States, "Independently of its misdeeds, the merepower, — the bare existence of such a power, — is a thing irreconcilable with the nature and spirit of our institutions." - I am afraid the ordinary citizen will not like to be told that the banks can and do create money. And they who control the credit of the nation direct the policy of Governments and hold in the hollow of their hand the destiny of the people. Reginald McKenna, as Chairman of the Midland Bank, addressing stockholders in 1924.
- "Money plays the largest part in determining the course of history." Karl Marx writing in the Communist Manifesto (1848)
- "It is well enough that people of the nation do not understand our banking and money system, for if they did, I believe there would be a revolution before tomorrow morning." Henry Ford, founder of the Ford Motor Company.

- By 1883 the Eastern Establishment controlled the editorial policy of the New York Times, and many other newspapers in the United States. John Swinton was the editorial page editor of the New York Times from 1860 to 1870, and Chief of Staff and editorial page writer at the New York Sun from 1870 until 1892. When John Swinton delivered a five-minute talk to a journalists' gathering at the Twilight Club in New York City on April 12, 1883, he stated:
  - "There is no such thing in America as an independent press, unless it is in the country towns. You know it and I know it. There is not one of you who dare to write his honest opinions, and if you did you know beforehand they would never appear in print. I am paid $150 a week for keeping my honest opinions out of
  - You know this and I know it, and what folly is this to be toasting an "independent press." We are the tools and vassals of rich men behind the scenes. We are the jumping-jacks; they pull the strings and we dance. Our talents, our possibilities and our lives are all the property of other men. We are intellectual prostitutes."
- When Ben Bagdikian began researching the ownership of the American media in the late 1970s, fifty major corporations owned over half of the major media outlets in the United States. The first edition of Ben Bagdikian's book, "The Media Monopoly", was published in 1980. By 2000, when the sixth edition of Bagdikian's book was published, six mega-corporations controlled most of the media outlets. He wrote:
  - "Six firms dominate all American mass media. Each is a subsidiary of a larger parent firm, some of them basically operating in other industries. The six parent firms are General Electric, Viacom, Disney, Bertelsmann, Time Warner, and Murdoch's News Corp. Bertelsmann is based in Germany and News Corp in Australia. . . . These six have more annual media revenues than the next twenty firms combined."
